Brick by Brick

This book is a short history of the building of the brick church building used by Immanuel's Evangelical Lutheran Church in St. Ansgar, Iowa. In 2024, the congregation celebrated the 150th anniversary of the founding of the congregation and the 100th anniversary of the building of the church.

Information was taken from the Building Committee meeting notebook, old Immanuel Lamplighters and Annual Reports. Newspaper clippings were found on the St. Ansgar Enterprise archive available online from the Nissen Library. Members of Immanuel also shared stories from their ancestors.

In 2024, Immanuel's Evangelical Lutheran Church, St. Ansgar, Iowa, celebrates its 150th anniversary as a congregation. It is also the centennial anniversary year of the construction and dedication of the brick structure that serves our congregation still today. Included below is a timeline of the construction of our beautiful church building.

The building committee and Pastor Brammer kept wonderful, detailed records that were used to create this history of Immanuel's brick church. The minutes, letters and paperwork from the many contractors were saved and stored in a wooden box archive. Indented texts are transcribed entries from the Building Committee and correspondence between Pastor Brammer and others.

In August of 1906 Pastor Paul Brammer was called and installed as Immanuel's fifth pastor. The congregation worshipped in the wood church located at the corner of 5th Street and Washington since 1882. The doors opened to the east.

Rev. Paul and Clara (Dornseif) Brammer

Shortly after Pastor Brammer's installation, the church almost suffered a total loss of their building. The steeple was struck by lightning and smoke and flames broke from the steeple.

St. Ansgar's new waterworks system underwent its first trial and its efficiency was proven. The fire department carried a hose inside the church and up to the steeple and the water put out the fire.

Fire in St. Ansgar
Saturday evening the Water Works system had its first trial in the real work of putting out a fire and its efficiency has been clearly proven. Shortly after six o'clock a shower broke over St. Ansgar. The clouds,

The congregation continued to grow and by the 1920s, the wood church was at capacity. Talks began in 1921 to construct a new church building. May 13, 1923, a building committee was elected and instructed to find plans and an estimate of the cost for construction.

The building committee included Herman A. Borchart as president and Pastor Paul Brammer as secretary. Other committee members included Herman A. Rosel, Herman E. Falk, Otto Simmering, August C. Janzow, Richard C. Mueller, Otto Boening, Oscar G. Schroeder.

A separate finance committee was selected to handle raising the funds and to pay the costs to build the church. Herman A. Borchart, Herman H. Fluhrer, Herman A. Rosel, August C. Janzow and Albert Schuhmacher were tasked with these duties.

Visiting and planning

The committee visited several churches in Iowa and Minnesota. They were most impressed with St. Paul Lutheran located at 305 E5th Street in Blue Earth, Minnesota.

What follows are the opening pages of the Building Committee Minutes as recorded in a composition book written by Pastor Brammer:

July 10, 1923

Our church building Committee, elected in the special meeting of the congregation, May 13, 1923, and instructed to look about for plans and estimates of a new church to be erected in 1924, the 50th anniversary of the congregation, made a number of trips inspecting churches, some of these under construction, others finished. After due consideration of their merits and demerits, the church at Blue Earth Minnesota, appealed to us, seemed to meet our requirements, and came within our financial limits. We placed the plan and picture of this church with minor changes before the congregation in a meeting on June 3rd. It met with general approval, and the committee was instructed to proceed to engage an architect, work out a definite heavily charged with electricity, hung low and sharp flashes of lightning played pretty close to the earth. At about 6:20 the steeple of the German Lutheran church was struck, and instantly all the electric lights in town went out and almost immediately smoke and flame broke from the steeple. In a very few minutes the fire department with both hose carts was at the church. The firemen went to work like old hands and in a very short time the hose had been carried up inside the church into the steeple and the water was playing on the first thirty or forty feet above the ground. The people of St. Ansgar now appreciate the waterworks more than ever before. It would have been an utter impossibility to have put that fire out with pails, on account of the great distance which it was from the ground, and had it not been for the waterworks the church and probably other buildings would now be in ashes.

place and to submit it to the congregation for approval. After again inspecting the work on the churches under construction at Blue Earth and Janesville Minn, the walls of which by July 9th had been carried up to the roof, all the members of our committee met in the evening of July 10, 1923, and passes the following resolutions:

1. That we now proceed to choose an architect.
2. That we decide on an architect by ballot.
3. The choice of the architect having by common consent have been diminished down to the two firms of Schippel & Schmidt of Mankato, Minn and Gaarder & Gaarder of Albert Lea, Minn. The ballots revealed the following results: 5 votes for Schippel & Schmidt, 2 for Gaarder & Gaarder. [ed. designed Albert Lea MN Post Office]
4. By acclamation this choice was now made unanimous

Note: Mr. R.C. Mueller remarked that he would not vote NO; but that according to his personal opinion Mr. Schmidt was not the man to properly supervise our job.

5. Resolved, that the building comm. reserve the right to have full supervision over the building project, labor and material, while under construction, in this manner, that whenever possible, there always be a member of the comm. on the ground and if anything be found wrong or faulty, that the committee or a quorum to be called together, and if they cannot adjust the matter, to call the architect and adjust the matter with his cooperation.
6. Resolved that the secretary notify Schippel & Schmidt that we are now ready to enter upon negotiation with them to see whether we can come to a satisfactory agreement and make the contract.
7. Adjournment.

St. Ansgar Enterprise May 23, 1923

They selected Schippel & Schmidt, Architects from Mankato, Minnesota, to design the plans and submit blueprints.

October 7, 1923 the congregation approved the plans for the new church. It would face east, just like the old wood church. The building would be 48 x 93 ft overall and seat 450 people comfortably. The outside would be brick.

After advertising for contractors a few problems surfaced.

Architects

Even as the building committee and the congregation were making and approving the plans for the new church building, the architectural firm hired to develop the blue prints was having its own problems. The senior member of the firm was planning to retire and Mr. Schmidt was to purchase Mr. Schippel's share of the company. It is unknown what the situation was between the two men, but it resulted in the local sheriff serving a garnishment to Immanuel Lutheran Church the day after the congregation voted to proceed with the plans presented to them. They needed to make a payment for the delivery of the blue prints but were in a quandary who to pay.

Letter to Mr. Schippel from Pastor Brammer...

Sept 22, 1923

Mr. Alb. Schippel,
Mankato, Minn

Dear Mr. Schippel: - In regard to paying Mr. Schmidt the money for the plans, we cannot very well hold back the money due on the contract without getting ourselves into trouble of some kind.

We contracted for plans with the FIRM Schipple & Schmidt, and to the Firm S. & S. we are to pay according to the terms of the contract. My suggestion would be that you members of the firm settle this matter among yourselves rather than take your troubles before your customers.

We will not be ready to approve the Blue Prints and Specifications before Oct. 7 and by that time you ought to have the matter adjusted. ....

Yours truly, Paul Brammer

Letter from H. H. Matt, Attorney at Law, Osage, Iowa to Pastor Brammer

October 17, 1924

Dear Sir:

This is to inform you that the controversy between Mr. Schippel and Ernest Schmidt has been settled, and that the attachment served on you by Sheriff Hungerford is released, and you can now proceed to pay Mr. Schmidt whatever might be due him.

Respectfully yours, H. H. Matt, Attorney at Law, Osage, Iowa

Letter to Mr. Schmidt from Pastor Brammer

October 18, 1923

Dear Mr. Schmidt:

... On Oct. 7th the congregation approved of the plans and specifications, and on Monday the 8th the Building Committee met to authorize the payment of the 300.00. But in the afternoon the Sheriff served a garnishment by Mr. Schippel on our treasurer, and so we awaited further developments. About the same time, we received a letter from Mr. Schipple saying that on advice of H.H. Matt, Atty., he wished to say that he had sold his business to you allowing you to use his name in a settlement very soon and that he would see that our job was taken care of even if he had to do it himself. This was a contradiction in itself. The fact is we do not know what we are at. Matt says we should pay you; Shippel says he sold out; we made the contract with S & S. I think a legal statement as to the legal status of your partnership or a written order or permit signed by both of you would satisfy the com. ...

Yours truly, Paul Brammer

Minutes from the Building Committee record book:

October 9, 1923 garnishment notice from the Architect

October 18 minutes: On reading the letters of Schippel dated Oct 10, 1923, of Schmidt dated Oct 17, 1923 and H. H Matt dated October 17, 1923, resolved that the Secretary inform the firm Schipple & Schmidt that the first installment of 300.00 due to Schipple & Schmidt was garnished by Mr. Schipple and this payment to the same was stopped, and on Oct 18 rec'd letter from H. H. Matt and that the firm of Schipple & Schmidt is now to advise us what action we are to take in this matter, as we are ready to do business with them as per our contract.

The check was reissued to the firm Schippel and Schmidt and the building plans progressed.

City Alley

Letter to Mr. Schmidt from Pastor Brammer

Nov 21, 1923

Dear Mr. Schmidt: - The other day we staked out the exact location of our church, facing it East, as we had planned. There is a 20 ft alley platted East of the parsonage running North and South; it is still closed and the present neighbor does not want it opened. We thought of having it vacated together with the neighbor, but he will not live forever and experience shows that if the future neighbor should want it opened, the court would uphold him. We dare not put our church in the alley. This leaves us only about 112 ft from East to West. Staying 2 ft East of alley with the rear end of the church, would leave us little from lower front steps to the sidewalk, with too much slant on the short piece of walk to the outside walk. This slant could be eliminated by putting a step in which, however, would be objectionable. In brief, our ground would level up better with a North front. Again, the rear end of the church would come pretty close to the parsonage, not a pretty view from the parsonage seven days a week. Again, the parsonage and all the other buildings on the East and West street face North, and facing the church North would present a prettier front towards that street and the town. The East and West street running along the North side of our property is a wider and better street than the North and South street East of the church. Again, with the East front the social and school room in the basement would get the sun through the South windows where the shades could be drawn down to protect the eyes of those sitting nearest. This objectionable feature would be eliminated with a North front and let the light into the basement from the East and West. Again, the cold coming in through the large and other windows on the North is mentioned against the East front. Most of us took it for granted that we would face the church East again like the old one. What always made me hold out against a North front was the cold blast that would come in through the doors when people enter the church, as well as the probable ice and sleet on the steps. (But the wind does not always blow from the North, even in winter. Besides we would have the small door to the East to fall back on in that case.) The fact is that there is considerable sentiment on foot to face that church North, if it can be done yet without causing too many changes in the plans and additional expense. We are aware that the contractors are all figuring the present plans, and in case we do face the church North, the two towers will have to be interchanged. Now the committee wants me to ask you what you think about it. IS it possible to make this change now? Would it be necessary to make new Blue Prints? Would it affect the bids, etc.?

Letter written by Pastor Brammer to the architect Nov. 21 1923

Would you please tell us approximately how many yards of sand and gravel we need in all for concrete and plaster. (We can get it place on the ground @ 2.23 per yard.) How many 100 face brick do we need? What are the prospects of prices? Up or down? Can you give us an estimate what our job will cost at present prices?

The following bids will come in from this end: .....[list of local bids]

Please let me hear from you on the Front and other matters before Thanksgiving day, as we may have a meeting of the congregation that afternoon in which the gravel hauling and front will come up.

Yours truly, Paul Brammer

P.S.

You will perhaps get the impression that we St. Ansgar fellows are a bunch of cranks; but these questions come up when you get down to brass tacks.

Brick:

Approximately 80,000 bricks were needed. The building committee selected Twin City Brick Company of St. Paul, Minnesota and the “Autumn Leaf rag faced” brick. The committee requested samples because they didn’t want variation in the color of the brick. January 25, 1924 a representative of Twin City Brick Co. came to the meeting and said his company couldn’t furnish the narrow color as they had chosen. They ordered a different set of colors and reserved the right to reject the brick on arrival if it didn’t correspond with the samples. The company agreed and signed the amended contract.

March 10, 1924 ordered face brick to be delivered, 1 train car load a day until 5 car loads have arrived. Volunteers from the congregation would move the brick from the railcars to the church location.

Art Glass Windows:

January 10, 1924, 3 reliable firms were requested to provide samples, designs and quotations on Art Glass. January 29, 1924 the committee instructed Ford-McNutt to submit sketches of windows: The Good Shepherd, Blessing the Little Children, Gethsemane and the nave windows with symbols subject to approval from the architect. Feb 13, 1924 Rothburgh Glass submitted designs but they didn’t use this company.

March 5 Signed contract with Ford-McNutt Glass at $2150.

Arrival of 40 crates of church furniture, October 23, 1924

Oct. 27, 1924

Dear Mr. Bercker

The altar, pulpit and pews arrived here Friday and we unloaded them Saturday. Everything seemed to be in good condition. However when we opened the statue box, we found an all white statue instead of a statue “decorated in natural colors” as our contract calls for. Some one must have made a mistake in filling the order. So please send us another statue with the body in flesh color, dark hair, and robe in mild colors. If shipped at once it will reach us by Nov. 9 when we will dedicate. To be on the safe side will hold the present statue subject to your order until the arrival of the new one.

Will you also kindly in a few words give us instructions for assembling the pews? That will save us some time and useless experimenting.

Sincerely Yours, Paul Brammer

And a reply from Mr. Bercker on October 29, 1924

Rev. and dear Sir:

[Personal message between the two men]

Now regarding the statue finish. You no doubt recollect that I mentioned that if a white altar is furnished we will have to use a decorated statue and if a natural oak finished altar is selected we must use the ivory finish.

A colored statue on a natural oak finished altar is absolutely out of place. It takes the dignity away from the general. The statue at Blue Earth is also ivory.

You better use the ivory statue and you will notice, that same will give you a better job and quieter harmony than the colored statue would. I will await your further order on this matter.

[The letter continued with directions for assembling the pews.]

Yours truly, Fred Bercker

“Subscriptions” was the amount pledged by the individual church members to help pay for completing the entire new church project. “Hopefully enough money would be collected to pay the bills.”

Much site work was needed before the new church construction could begin. First the existing wood framed church needed to be removed from the site. The city of St. Ansgar gave permission for 5th Street to be closed temporarily. The steeple and the side coal shed were removed and the entire church was lifted and moved into the street. The congregation continued to hold worship service in the church sitting in the middle of 5th street until the new building was completed and dedicated.

—The members of Immanuel's Lutheran church finished excavating for the basement of their new church last Friday. To judge by the face brick and cut stone already on the ground it will be a fine looking building.

St. Ansgar Enterprise March 19, 1924

—About ten teams were busy at work yesterday hauling gravel for the new German Lutheran church. This work is all donated by members. The gravel is being hauled from the Kittleson place south of town.

St. Ansgar Enterprise December 19, 1923

Much of the work was done by donated labor by members of the congregation to save money. Farmers brought their teams of horses to town to haul gravel and sand. Others worked to excavate the basement using a slip scoop. Otto Erdmann, grandfather of Keith Horgen, helped with removing the dirt.

Members with wagons would go to the rail yard and haul the building materials to the work site.

Fred Pagel, a retired farmer, and great grandfather of Norman Pahl, Phyllis Ahlf and Jerry Rachut, helped to move the brick from the rail cars. He worked in the brickyards in Milwaukee before coming to Iowa to farm. Fred argued with the younger men to toss him the bricks twice as fast so he could alternate arms catching and stacking the bricks on the wagon. They were afraid of injuring the 76-year-old man.

Many others also volunteered with the moving of the furnishings from the railyard. Every wagon load delivered helped to defray the cost.

—Work on the German Lutheran church is progressing nicely. On Monday seven men of the contracting firm of Schradel & Clark of Austin arrived to commence work. Tuesday about twenty men worked on the water mains and sewer and it is expected that this work will be completed by tonight.

St. Ansgar Enterprise April 9, 1924

✕ Work on the new German Lutheran church is going along at full speed. This morning the contractor arrived and the work of pouring concrete for the foundation has begun. The crushed rock to be used is also on the ground.

—Mrs. Ross Hartlev came down from Austin today to look for rooms. Her husband is one of the workmen on the new German Lutheran church and they expect to make their home here this summer.

St. Ansgar Enterprise April 9, 1924

Harvey Priem is working at St. Ansgar on the new German Lutheran church.

Accidents on the site

According to clippings from the St. Ansgar Enterprise, at least two men were injured on the work site. The first one involved August Ruechel while he was helping with the basement. He was cut on his head by a falling hunk of frozen earth and required 8 stitches on his scalp by Dr. Westenburger. Another worker fell from the balcony but fortunately only sprained his wrist.

BLAST INJURES AUG. RUECHL

Yesterday morning August Ruechel had his head cut by a falling piece of frozen earth while engaged on the cellar for the new German Lutheran church. He had hidden behind the coal house standing close by, pretty well protected by the eaves, but a small piece of frozen earth hit the edge of his hat and he stooped over to pick up the hat when a large piece that had moved slower on account of its size came down with terrific force on his head and cut it so that Dr Westenberger had to take eight stitches to sew it up. However, aside from the scalp wound, it did not injure him so he is getting along all right.

Work is progressing nicely on the cellar and it will all be finished in a few days.

—Calvin Thompson, one of the laborers on the new German Lutheran church, fell on Monday from the balcony while at work. He was indeed fortunate in that the only injury sustained was a sprained wrist. He will in all probability be able to go back to work in a few days.

After a hymn by the congregation, the general contractor handed over the keys to Pastor Brammer, who opened the door. Accompanied by the joyful peals of the new bell, the people soon filled the large church to its utmost capacity. Former Pastor William Janzow gave the English address. The Sunday School and the Choir both shared anthems.

DEATH OF MRS. MARTIN MOE

Mrs. Martin Moe, wife of the former publisher of the Enterprise, died very suddenly last Saturday evening, shortly after nine o'clock. Mrs. Moe had not been in good health for some time, and she had been suffering from a sick spell, but was apparently getting better. She was up and down stairs that day, and in the evening her daughter, Mamie, assisted her in getting to bed and she went to sleep, but, after sleeping a short time, woke up with a bad spell, and died in a short time, before the doctor had time to arrive.

Mrs. Moe will be missed, not only by her family, but by a large circle of friends, as she was one of the best known and best liked women in St.
Ansgar, always ready and anxious to perform a good deed or kindly act.
The sorrowing family have the sympathy of all.

day night. His remains will be brought to St. Ansgar and the fumore than twenty years, was one of

St. Ansgar's prominent merchants.

The footings, foundation and all basement walls are of solid concrete, the superstructure of hollow tile and Autumn Leaf rug faced brick, trimmed with Kasota cut stone. The windows are of art glass, showing in the three large ones the scene of the Resurrection, Christ in Gethsemane, and Christ blessing little children, and in the smaller ones the symbols of Baptism, the Lord's Supper, the Parable of the Sower, and the Life of Christ from Bethlehem to Calvary. The interior is furnished with solid oak altar, pulpit, and pews. A concealed pipe organ furnishes wonderful music, and from the large tower a new 1500 lb. bell calls the worshippers. The pews will comfortably seat 450 people.

The basement contains a social room, 54x40 feet for the various societies, also a kitchen, furnace room, coal bin, toilets, and cloakroom. The building is equipped with a fan system of heating and ventilating, so that the atmosphere in the church can be changed every ten minutes.

All the members cheerfully assisting in the hauling of sand and materials, excavating and grading, and doing many odd jobs, also by the donation of various articles by individual members, it was possible to complete and equip the church for approximately $15,000.00.

Long before the hour set for the ceremonies throngs of people gathered at the old church, where a farewell service was held, in which Rev. Brammer, the local pastor, officiated. From there the congregation, headed by the architect, the contractor, the officiating pastors, the building committee, the deacons, the choir, and the Sunday School, proceeded to the new church. After a hymn by the congregation, the contractor handed over the keys to Rev. Brammer, who opened the door with a few appropriate words. Accompanied by the joyful peals of the new bell, the people soon filled the large church to its utmost capacity, and many not even finding standing room had to go home again. Prof. Wm. Kirchoff of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, presided at the organ and led the congregation in singing. Rev. A. Schwidder of Wall Lake, Iowa, assisted by Rev. Brammer and Rev. Stephan, spoke the dedicatory prayer, and delivered the German sermon. Rev. W. Janzow of Adelaide, Australia, former pastor of the church, then gave an English address.

In the afternoon service eloquent anniversary sermons were delivered by Rev. T. Stephan of Vincent and Rev. Theo. Frese of Osage. In the evening Prof. Wm. Kirchoff gave an organ recital which pleased the packed house so much that many requests for a repetition were received.

Thanks to the systematic arrangements of the ladies about one thousand people were furnished a free lunch in the basement in one and one-half hours at noon, and again to 700 in the evening.

This being the fiftieth anniversary of the church, we take the liberty of adding a few historical notes:

The beginning of Immanuel's Evangelical Lutheran Church at St. Ansgar was small and primitive. In 1870, the German Lutherans in Mitchell county were few and far between, but the current of immigration, once started, continued to increase. Though the times were hard and money was scarce, yet these brave and sturdy old German pioneers, being of a religious mind, called upon German Lutheran field missionaries to administer to their spiritual wants. Rev. Mertens and Rev. Doescher responded to this call at intervals, preaching in the homes of the people or in the "old stone school house" of St. Ansgar. There were about eight families in attendance at these services. The heads of these families were: C. L. Tessman, L. Rosel, Aug. Nienow, Geo. Rosel, Fred Hartwig, H. Kuehl, C. Mueller and Christ Zerck.

Knowing the surrounding territory to be a promising field for a mission, among the German Lutherans, if resident pastor could be secured for St. Ansgar, this small congregation extended a call to Rev. E. Wiegner, a graduate of Concordia Seminary at St. Louis, Mo. He accepted this call and was installed here the eighth Sunday after Trinity (July 26, 1874) by Rev. L. Craemer. Besides St. Ansgar, Rev. Wiegner preached at Northwood, Riceville, Clear Lake, Garner, Rudd, Rock Creek, Osage, Rockwell and other places. But even during his absence, the work in the home church went on, one of the lay members reading a sermon to the congregation from some foreign post.

August 30, 1874, the congregation organized, C. L. Tessman and L. Rosel being elected elders, the latter was also to serve as chairman and secretary.

In the fall of the same year C. Zerck and C. Mueller were admitted to membership. October 31, 1874, the congregation bought its first church property from S. J. McKinley, lots 5 and 6, in block 32, with a fair sized residence, for the consideration of $450.00. This building served as a parsonage and church until October 18, 1882, when the congregation bought the church property, which it owns to this day.

The old church was originally built for the Baptists, and turned over to them June 1, 1878. But in 1882 John N. Rhames claimed the property, including four lots and the church building, and having the title cleared, sold it to Immanuel's Evangelical Lutheran Congregation for $975.00. It was rededicated as a Lutheran church the twenty-third Sunday after Trinity, 1882, and, with but slight structural changes only, has served as such to this day.

March 18, 1880, the congregation was incorporated, for the first time, papers being signed by L. Rosel, C. C. Moeller, H. Hoppe, Geo. Rosel, Aug. Niemann, F. Roening, C. L. Tessman, Er. Ruechel and J. P. Moeller.

November 10, 1876, P. H. Benson and Herm. Treichel donated half an acre of land each to the congregation to serve for cemetery purposes.

In 1879 the congregation formally joined the "Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states", the largest Lutheran church body in America, C. C. Moeller being the first delegate.

From the beginning the congregation made it a point to have their children educated in the faith of their religious school, erecting a special building for this purpose in the fall of 1884.

Rev. Wiegner having died in the spring of 1890, the congregation gave his wife the free use of the house in which she lived, and at once made preparations to build the parsonage on the present site. Later on Mrs. Wiegner bought this property.

Although of the charter members, only two are still in our midst (Henry Kuehl and Augusta Tessman), yet of those that joined in the five years following the organization of the church, quite a few are still with us, who saw the congregation develop from a "mustard seed to a large tree".

The congregation now consists of 105 members (voting) and 480 souls. The following are the pastors of the congregation and the periods of their pastorate:

Rev. E. Wiegner, from July 1874 to May 1890.

Rev. T. Hantel, from October 1890 to April 1896.

Rev. J. Drexler, from June 1896 to November 1879.

Rev. W. Janzow, from July 1900 to July 1906.

Rev. Paul Brammer, from August 1906 to the present day.

The congregation having outgrown the capacity of the old church the members decided in 1923 to erect a new building to accommodate the worshippers, and on December 11, 1923, they awarded the contract for the present structure to Messrs. Schradle & Clark of Austin, Minn., the building to be a memorial for the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the congregation, August 30, 1874. Ernest H. Schmidt of Mankato, Minn., furnished the plans and specifications ***

The old church was originally built for the Baptists and turned over to them June 1, 1878. But in 1882 John N. Rhames claimed the property, including four lots and the church building, and having the title cleared, sold it to Immanuel's Evangelical Lutheran Congregation for $975.00.

It was rededicated as a Lutheran church the twenty-third Sunday after Trinity, 1882, with slight structural changes only, has served as such to this day.

March 18, 1880, the congregation was incorporated for the first time, papers being signed by L. Rosel, C. C. Moeller, H. Hoppe, Geo. Rosel, Aug. Nienow, F. Boening, C. L. Tessman, Ed. Ruechel and J. P. Moeller.

November 10, 1876, P. H. Benson and Herm. Treichel donated half an acre of land each to the congregation to serve for cemetery purposes.

In 1879 the congregation formally joined the "Synod of Missouri, Ohio and other states", the largest Lutheran church body in America, Mozler being the first delegate.

From the beginning the congregation made it a point to have their children educated the faith of their religious school, erecting a special building for this purpose in the fall of 1884.

Rev. Wiegner having died in the spring of 1880, the congregation gave his wife the free use of the house in which she lived, and at once made preparations to build the parsonage on the present site. Later on Mrs. Wiegner bought this property.

Although of the charter members, only two are still in our midst (Henry Kuehl and Augusta Tessman), yet of those that joined in the five years following the organization of the church, quite a few are still with us, who saw the congregation develop from a "mustard seed to a large tree".

The congregation now consists of 105 members (voting) and 480 souls. The following are the pastors of the congregation and the periods of their pastorate:

Rev. E. Wiegner, from July 1874 to May 1890.

Rev. T. Hantel, from October 1890 to April 1896.

Rev. J. Drexler, from June 1896 to November 1899.

Rev. W. Janzow, from July 1900 to July 1906.

Rev. Paul Brammer, from August 1906 to the present day.

The congregation having outgrown the capacity of the old church, the members decided in 1923 to erect a new building to accommodate the worshippers, and on December 11, 1923, they awarded the contract for the present structure to Messrs. Schradle & Clark of Austin, Minn., the building to be a memorial for the fiftieth anniversary of the founding of the congregation, August 30, 1874. Ernest H. Schmidt of Mankato, Minn., furnished the plans and Specifications.

Dear Members,

As the erection of your new home of the Lord has been completed, I at this time wish to express my thanks for the trust you had in me through your committee. They have at all times had your interest in mind and have work hard to make this a reality. The different contractors and mechanics did their work well and it has been a pleasure to work with such men. They have put in good materials and workmanship.

Again thanking you for all trust and courtesies shown. I remain

Very truly yours

Problems with the Statue

The statue of Jesus shipped with the church furniture didn't fit properly in the niche in the altar. It was too large and wasn't centered in the opening. One suggestion was to carve some of Jesus robe away. NO ONE would attempt that solution. Eventually the company sent a slightly smaller statue (4 ft. 6in.) and the board accepted it on May 11, 1925. The company requested the original one would be shipped back in the packing box to Munich Statuary and Altar Co in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

May 13, 1925.

F.H. Bercker,
MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Dear Mr. Bercker:-

The new statue arrived and we put it in place last evening. It fits into the niche, and the committee accepted it and ordered it paid as well as the entire ballance which is enclosed by check. This makes our account look like this:

IR Altar, Oak	865.00	10% paid down	317.84
Statue	98.00	Freight on furniture	77.00
Pulpit	318.20	" "Statue	4.02
Organ Panel	60.00	By Check	1021.36
Pews	1229.20	Telephone for shortage	2.30
Hymnboard	25.00	Express & Dray "	1.47
Total	3293.40	By Check	850.00
		Freight on new Statue	3.25
		By Check	1016.16
		Total	3293.40

Hoping that our figures may agree with yours, I remain

Yours truly,
Paul Brammer,
Sec. Bldg Com.
Immanuel's Lutheran Church
St. Ansgar, Iowa.

P.S. We are sending the old statue as directed and enclose Bill of Lading.

P.S. This P. is just a personal note and does not belong to the above letter. I just wanted to give you a hint on the statue. "It fits in the niche", but the old statue was more like a "Thorwaldsen". If on the old statue the gown part on the left side had been taken in about 4" it would have gone into the niche, the spread of the hands could have remained the same; but the proportions of the new statue to the whole altar are better.

Miscellaneous Issues

Clock tower proposal

April 11, 1924

Henry Stucketele Bell Foundry Co
St. Louis, MO
Gentlemen

My letter to you a few days ago was somewhat vague, and I am sure, you did not know just what to make of it and what to reply, since there is so wide a range of chimes and chimes: Since then I have had a chance to talk to the prospective donor, an old person, and find that he has his mind set on a tower clock with perhaps three bells as chimes to strike the ¼ and full hour. In this case we need two extra bells to chord with our present bell of about

April 11, 1924 Letter to Henry Stucketele Bell Foundry from Paul Brammer

600 lbs. In middle A. one lower and one higher pitched. The low one to strike the full hour. What would the proper bells cost and what the clocks with two or three dials or both together? Would you be able to furnish the clock or where could I get one?

Trusting that this inquiry will be more satisfactory to you than my first one, I remain

Yours truly, Paul Brammer –

Committee minutes July 17, 1924

3. Resolve to place matter of tower clock before congregation in special meeting next Monday 8 P.M

And a letter from the architect Ernest Schmidt:

July 18, 1924

Dear Rev Brammer,

Enclosed find a sketch of the alteration of tower to take care of the clock.

I think that the dial of the clock should be not more than 4 ½ feet. This would make the design better. I have added on 5 ½ ft. and think this will be plenty. I don't think the proportions will be slighted in increasing the height. The small tower need not be increased. I find that heightening the small tower effects the design.

I am please to hear that the trusses are there. Let me hear of the outcome of the clock.

Very truly yours, Ernest H Schmidt

P.S. Find out the right dimension and keep the tower as low as possible.

[No other mention of the tower clock so the congregation must have decided against adding it to the east tower.]

During the summer of 1924, while the church was under construction, Pastor Brammer became ill and was hospitalized for several weeks. His wife Clara kept up with details and correspondence so the project wasn't delayed.

One week after the Dedication service was the first wedding. Ernest Nelson and Laura Hackbarth were married November 16, 1924 by Rev. Paul Brammer. Attendants were: Orië Hackbarth, Alvin Nelson, Olga Bartz and Olga Nelson.

The first baptism was Wayne Ruechel, son of Carl and Josephine Ruechel on December 1, 1924.

Other Improvements since 1925

The interior of the church was decorated in 1930 for a cost of $1200. This interior finish was cleaned and restored in the spring of 1949 by the original decorator, C. A. Christiansen of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. Protective glass was installed to protect the art glass windows.

The 1500-pound bronze bell cracked and was replaced May 11, 1951 with a used cast steel bell (2000 lb.). The cracked bell was scrapped.

In 1955 was begun a project to add book racks to the pews. They were made and installed by George Crouch. This was a circle project.

In 1956 the old parsonage was moved 3 blocks east and replaced for $37,476.76 with a five bedroom, two-bath with an office for the pastor. It was finished in 1957.

In 1956 the choir loft pews were changed from facing the congregation to facing the pulpit.

Chimes were purchased for $657.35 and installed by the choir loft in 1961.

The Dodge property, south of the church, was purchased in 1963 for use as a parking lot. The cost was $3,613.

June 13, 1971 was the groundbreaking for a new education unit which was dedicated on February 13, 1972. It included Pastor's office, a secretary's office, the lobby, restrooms, street level doors, a meeting room and 10 classrooms. The mother's room was removed and stairs from the unit to the sanctuary along with a second set of stairs to the basement were added.

The sanctuary was redecorated by Shettler Studio in 1973 for $11,300.

The organ console was upgraded in 1973 by Eugene Doutt of Watertown, South Dakota.

November 2005 saw the addition of the gathering space and remodel of the education unit. A full-size elevator was added providing handicap access to the sanctuary and basement from the street level entrance. The restrooms were remodeled to be handicap accessible. The space was dedicated on October 29, 2006. The remodel progress was delayed by a kitchen fire on August 1, 2006.

Building the south wall to add the stained glass window which had to be removed to place the elevator.

The courtyard before the addition of the gathering space.

The front steps were replaced due to water leaking into the basement. They had been repaired several times since 1924. Keith Horgen created new railings carrying out the arch design used throughout the church.

The interior of the sanctuary was repainted in 2010. Services were held in the basement while the scaffolding occupied the upstairs.

Close up view of the plaster work located near the ceiling of the main sanctuary.

The kitchen and basement were remodeled in 2014, offering a better traffic flow. The remodel also included a serving island in the main part of the basement with storage for the dishes, a venting hood over the stoves and a dish sanitizer.

The parking lot on the south side of the church was paved in 2018.

In 2020, the organ advanced to be an electronic solid-state instrument upgraded by the Reuter Organ Company located in Lawrence, Kansas. This allows the organist to pre-record music, transpose to a different key and there are fewer plastic parts to break.

After 100 years, the outside brick walls are showing their age and in 2023 Immanuel began a multiple year project to repoint the building. In 2023, the south side of the church was tuckpointed and the roof over the chancel was replaced. The church roof, the towers and the rest of the church will be addressed in the future.

Members of Immanuel’s Evangelical Lutheran Church in St. Ansgar, Iowa have valued and maintained this house of worship. A hundred years ago they made the best choices available to them to build our church. They used their time and talents to give us a wonderful place to worship. It is now our responsibility to continue the work of maintaining the building, adding improvements and wisely using our gifts and talents to share the saving message of salvation and eternal life through our Lord Jesus Christ to future generations.
